Thomas Jefferson High School originally had their Army Junior Reserve Officers Training corps Program in 1916-1920. On 15 May 1979, SGM George E. Saxon restablished the Army JROTC Program after a fifty nine year absence. SGM Saxon was Joined in november 1979 by Leonard L. Brown. In September 1980 LTC James T. Finch became the Senior Army Instructor and the team of Finch and Saxon continues today. The Army JROTC program is a cooperative effort on the part of the Army and Thomas Jefferson High School to provide students opportunities for total development. The JROTC learning experience is intended to be useful to students in any Future career.

Youthful Consecration to the Lord Service

Jesus, who calls you to rejoice in his love, calls you to engage in his service. God by his providence will point out to you how you may glorify him: in principal, the service required of you will be the same. A cheerful mind, a willing heart, an unmurmuring submission, a lifelong devotion.

There are many advantages to the worker. A direction is given to the active nature which there will be no occasion to reverse or alter.

There is a time for doing it thoroughly and consistently. The youthful worker can adapt himself to work and interest in it will depend as the years pass on.

God cannot but be pleased when his work is taken in hand and carried on by those whom he himself has designed for it.

It is your responsibility to seriously consider the call of headily accept the trust and prayerfully seek guidance and help for its fulfillment. God says, to you "young people" go work in my vineyard.

I commend you for your achievements and pray that God richly bless you in your future endeavors.

BEST WISHES FOR A SUCCESSFUL FUTURE

From RUTH WASHINGTON

Publisher And Owner

LOS ANGELES SENTINEL NEWSPAPER

Dear Graduates and students:

Tomorrow belongs to you. But it belongs to you conditionally. It will not come unless you are prepared to take advantage of it.

If you are prepared, one of you could become the Mayor of Los Angeles, or even the Governor of the state of California. You might well become city councilmen or councilwomen. But you must be prepared.

As you have no doubt noticed, the slogan of the Los Angeles Sentinel is "Education will lead to the truth." and that slogan must become your way of life, if you plan on making yours a successful life.

In this time of a major drug culture and excessively high crime rates, the world must look to the youth for change. It will become your responsibility to bring credibility back to government.

It will become your responsibility to bring truth into the educational system. It will also be responsibility to rear the children of the next generation.

All of these are awesome responsibilities and they cannot be taken lightly. They are much too important to be tucked away in some far corner.

Your fight for freedom is just beginning and you must not falter along the way. It is your chance to keep the faith and you cannot fail. For if you fail, you will not only have failed yourself, but you will have failed the entire community.

With all of this in mind, I heartily congratulate you for having come this far up the proverbial ladder of success, and at the same time, I wish you God-speed for tomorrow — and remember, tomorrow belongs to you. But only if you prepare for it.

Sincerely yours,
Ruth Washington (Mrs.)

Moses Is Concerned Man

Lee L. Moses is a man who is concerned about the Black community and the common problems that all Black Americans share. This concern, he says, led him to write and publish a book entitled "The Day That Blacks Rise (Not For Blacks Only)."

The book outlines his plan for a revitalization of the Black community through a plan and organization called "Blacktrack".

"Blacktrack," created by Moses, would finance special projects that will aid Blacks through an economic pool of resources. The source of the funding for this plan would be through payment of $1 per month by every Black American.

"When Blacks Rise" is full of simple "common sense" methods of dealing with Black problems like crime, jobs, drugs, poverty and economic mobility. In the opening section of the book, Moses says, " As I wrote I came up with more ideas than just writing a book, ideas that must be put into practice."

The book, published by Moses and Payne Publishers, is available at Broadway stores Crenshaw, Plaza, Downtown, Fox Hills, Hawthorne Mall, Carson Mall, the Aquarian Bookstore, 1342 W. Santa Barbara Ave. Westwood Bookstore, 1021 Broxton, the May Co. Downtown, Crenshaw, Wilshire and Lakewood.

The book is also available by writing Lee Moses/Ed Payne, P.O. Box 43261, Los Angeles, Calif. 90043.
